1. <sup>Em</sup> She came to me one morning, one lonely Sunday morning, Her <sup>D</sup> long hair flowing in the <sup>Em</sup> midwinter wind. I know not how she found me for in darkness I was walking and <sup>D</sup> destruction lay around me from a fight I could not win.

2. <sup>Em</sup> She asked me name my foe then, I said the need within some men, To <sup>D</sup> fight and kill their brothers without <sup>Em</sup> thought of love or God. And I begged her give me horses to trample down my enemies, So <sup>D</sup> eager was my passion to <sup>Em</sup> devour this waste of life
3. <sup>Em</sup> But she would not think of battle that reduces men to animals, So <sup>D</sup> easy to begin and yet <sup>Em</sup> impossible to end. For she's the mother of all men who counselled me so wisely then, I <sup>D</sup> feared to walk alone again and <sup>Em</sup> asked if she would stay

4. <sup>Em</sup> Oh, lady lend your hand I cried and let me rest here at your side, "Have <sup>D</sup> faith and trust in peace", she said and <sup>Em</sup> filled my heart with life. There is no strength in numbers, have no such misconception, <sup>D</sup> But when you need me be assured I <sup>Em</sup> won't be far away
5. <sup>Em</sup> Thus having spoke she turned away and though I found no words to say, I <sup>D</sup> stood and watched until I saw her <sup>Em</sup> black coat disappear. My labour is no easier but now I know I'm not alone, I <sup>D</sup> find new heart each time I think <sup>Em</sup> upon that windy day. And if one day she comes to you drink deeply from her words so wise, <sup>D</sup> Take courage from her as your prize and <sup>Em</sup> say hello from me.
